DEATH RELIEVES UNCREASING VIGIL

Night of Sorrow Is Spent at Bedside of Dying Financier.

UNCONSCIOUS AT THE END

Mr. Morgan Never Realized That His Illness Was Critical.

BY CAMILLO CIANFARRA. the time of the actual death of J. Pierpont Morgan—that is 3:20 o'clock this afternoon—Herbert L. Satterlee, Mr. Morgan's son-in-law, with blanched face and speaking with emotion, emerged from the Morgan suite in the Grand Hotel and announced to a group waiting reporters:

"Mr. Morgan is dead."
Up until that time, it is safe to say that not half a dozen people in Rome innew of the financier's demise. All through Mr. Morgan's illness there have been determined efforts on the part of all concerned to maintain se-crecy, but to those who have been in close touch with Mr. Morgan ever since his seizure in Cairo, the attempt proved

As I wired you last night, Mr. Morgan was a dying man, if not already dead, and there are many who believe the actual dissolution occurred hours before the time even given out officially s the time of death, for what reasons est known to those who deliberately misled the reporters here.

It was evidently a preconcerted plan, the same 2s in the case of the death of E. H. Harriman in the United States three years ago.

A Night of Vigil.

After a night of unceasing vigil, during which the waiting reporters were informed that Mr. Morgan was resting easily, the first hint that the end was approaching came with the break of dawn, when the correspon-dents saw Mr. Satterlee pacing the corridor in front of the Morgan suite, looking pale, nervous and excited. He had just come from the patient's room, and on being questioned said:

"My impression is that Mr. Morgan's American Archaeological School, weakness during the night has ineased and his temperature apparent-

From that time on many people, looking anxious and scared, entered and left the sick room, but nothing icfinite could be got from anyone un-Il noon, when the official bulletin was ssued, in which the doctors said Mr. lorgan's death was only a question f hours. Meanwhile, other confirm-tions had not been lacking. At 11 lock Miss Lee and Mrs. Huerlburt. Morgan's two cousins, called, but on left, their faces fully betraying e hopelessness of his condition. At clock, while the three doctors were cardiner Brown, rector of the English church in Rome, and Dr. Nelson, rector of the American Church, hurriedly or of the American Church, hurriedly chitered the hotel and were immediated awaiting news, and almost at the molardiner Brown, rector of the English to unconsciousness and never realized consciousness, except, perhaps, on two occasions, and then only partially and for a few seconds. The first time was on Sunday night, when the whole family sat around his bed. He suddenly arose, sat up and beckoned Dr. Dickson by a motion. He couldn't articulate, and with a waye of his hand expressed a wish to have the windows opened. Although the wish was immediately compiled with Morgan never the couldn't with the couldn't articulate. Owing to Mr. Morgan's death, the will power, as though making one final effort to master the enemy. Dr. Dickson ran forward to hold Mr. Morgan.

News Spreads Raj

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any neglicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to bekman's Alterative a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely pienty of time to demonstrate its listing value You can write to any of them. Here is one:

Gentlemen: In the winter of 1902 I had an attack of Grippe followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Rekran's Alverative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first alse night's sleep for weels. My improvement was marked from the first I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone, i am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

(Bworn affidavit) ANNE F. LOZGHRAN. 5523 Girard Ave. Phila., Pa.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bron-chitis, Astkma. Hay Fever. Throat and Lung Troubles and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisens, opiates or habit form-ing drugs. For saie by Tragle Drug Co and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional avidence—Advertisement.

Widow of Financier

MRS. J. PIERPONT MORGAN (on right).

clergymen, were present in the room score of years younger his visit to when the end came. They were Post Rome was the signal for a short ses Wheeler, of the American embassy, sion of gaiety which lasted as long as and Professor Carter, director of the he stayed in Rome.

The family was asked to retire from the room at 11 o'clock, and wait in an adjoining parlor for the end. When Professor Bastianelli, after rapidly feeling the pulse, announced "It's all over," Professor Carter began weeping loudly.

Descen roaming about the least known part of the city in order to identify some historical spot which was only known to the most punctillious students.

He once surprised Professor Giacomo Boni, director of the excavation of the Descent Foundation of the Descent Foundation of the Descent Foundation of the Professor Carter began weeping loudly. ing loudly, Suddenly beart-breaking sobbings

Suddenly beart-breaking sobbings were heard outside, and a man rushed in, throwing himself on the dead man's bed. He was Antonlo Pace, Mr. Morgan's courier, who, for twelve years, had traveled with him and acted as his watchdeg. Mr. Morgan liked Pace, who is physically a giant. Pace had a dog's affection for his master, and his grief was terrible to behold. Finally he had to be forcibly removed from the room.

Boni, director of the excavation of the Roman Forum, according to different archaelogical authorities, after which Boni left him, saying, "You need the resent in some quaint small church carefully studying time-faded frescoes and mastering the history of legends connected with them.

Mr. Morgan had spent months in St. Peter's.

Mr. Morgan had spent months in St. Peter's, and knew every detail of the big church. They even say there was no picture, bronze or marble in the Valican microscopics.

There awaiting news, and almost at the mo-

For the last nine days Mr. Morgan's mind had gradually been weakening, until on Sunday it became an absolute blank.

Since then he never really regained consciousness, except, perhaps, on two occasions, and then only nortially and promptly denied it, saying it was cruel to kill a man before God saw fit. At 2.45 Amban before God saw fit. At 2.45 fore God saw fit. At 2:45 Ambassador O'Brien entered the hotel and soon ing been most assiduous in his inquiries, his aide. General Bratani having called at 12:15, while ten minutes later Cardinal Merry Del Val called.

opened. Although the wish was immediately compiled with, Morgan never saw it, as he fell back on the pillow heavily, gasping for breath.

The second occasion was when all present thought the end had arrived, early this morning. For a few moments he seemed to regain all his old will power, as though making one final will power, as though making one final many presidents.

It cardinal Merry Del Val called.

Owing to Mr. Morgan's death, the reception scheduled to take place to morrow at the American embassy has been canceled. To night the American embassy has been canceled

News Spreads Rapidly.

From that time on the moanings of while outside a still larger crowd asternation and filled the room, and sembled.

The defense of the Attorney-General is that he was asked for an of-

Morgan, historical texts in hand, would big church. They even say there was no picture, bronze or marble in the Vatican museums which he could not recognize at a glance. This made Mor-gan's company in visiting Rome or its galleries extremely delightful and verbrokle.

in specific to the sick room. There at the bedside they read the prayers suitable for the occasion and administered Holy Communion.

Judging from subsequent admissions, Mr. Morgan's death was expected early in the morning, and the fact that he survived until noon surprised all.

"Any other man of that age," Prof. would have died three days ago."

Mr. Morgan himself never expected he was going to die, and even when his condition grew worse he declared he would get better, falling eventually into unconsciousness and never realizing death was at hand.

Mr. A colorab where the Stock Exchange opening death was at hand.

(Continued From First Page.)

until afternoon, the written opinion would be filed by 12 o'clock. Major son ran forward to hold Mr. Morgan, and at the same moment Miss Humliton, his granddaughter, entered the sick room. Since Easter Sunday the girl had never been allowed to see her grandfather.

The news of Mr. Morgan's death traveled with lightning-like rapidity through the hotels, and soon a large crowd, including many Americans, collected in the lobby of the Grand Hotel.

Wood then said he would postpone the determinance of the Attorney-General through the hotels, and soon a large crowd, including many Americans, collected in the lobby of the Grand Hotel.

The defense of the Attorney-General through the lobby of the Grand Hotel.

The defense of the Attorney-General through the lobby of the Grand Hotel.

The defense of the Attorney-General through the lobby of the Grand Hotel.

Daughter of Dead Financier

MISS ANNE MORGAN (in centre).

CONFERENCE ENDS ANNUAL SESSION

Reading of Appointments by Bishop Kilgo Is Final Business.

ONE NEW DISTRICT FORMED

Place of Meeting Next Year Left in Hands of Committee of Laymen.

BY MAMIE BAYS.
Staunton, Va., March 31.—The appointments of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were read at this even-ing's session. After the reading of the appointments the conference adjourned sine die, Bishop Kilgo pro-nouncing the benediction at 10:30 lt is of special interest that a new istrict has been formed in the condistrict has been formed in ference—Alexandria District.

Appointments of Ministers.

Appointments were as follows:

Alexander District.

D. H. Kern, presiding elder.

Alexandria, J. W. Duffey; Delray, E.

Lambert; Clarendon, T. M. Swann;

alls Clurch W. D. Kern, Fristers; A. Lambert; Clarendon, T. M. Swann; Falls Church, W. D. Kern; Fairfax, W. J. Whitsell; East Fairfax, B. D. Harrison (supply); Sterling, J. H. Kuhlman; Occoquan, L. B. Atkins; Fauquier, C. B. Sutton; Remington, H. L. Biven; Sudley, W. P. C. Coe; Manassas, E. A. Rhodes; Prince William, L. R. Markwood; Stafford, H. S. Willey (supply); Fredericksburg, J. R. Jacobs; Morrisville, C. E. Simmons; Dumfrles, E. Q. Coe; Warrenton, J. N. Mast; Leesburg, W. M. Waters; Hamilton, G. T. Tyler; Hillsboro, W. H. Marsh; Leesburg, W. M. Waters; Hamilton, G. T. Tyler; Hillsboro, W. H. Marsh; Bluemont, F. T., Ridgeway; Loudoun, S. V. Hildebrand; Middleburg, I. G. Michael; Marshall, A. A. P. Neel.

Baltimore District:

M. D. Mitchell, presiding elder,
Trinity, Calvary and North Baltimore, John Paul Tyler; Central, D. L.

Baltemore, Contraryon, S. B. Balter,
Blakemore, Contraryon, S. B. Balter.

The control of the power of the control of the cont Blakemore: Caernarvon, S. P. Baker: St. Pauls, S. K. Cockrell: St. John's Emmanuel, J. W. Smith; Wilkins Av-

Eckman's Alterative

Highly Praised

Letted in the looby of the Grand Hotel, while outside a still larger crowd as sembled.

Letted in the looby of the Grand Hotel, while outside a still larger crowd as sembled.

So lace did the latter become the circle outside. The doctors resorted to hypotermic hjections, also placing let around the head and body in an attempt to lower the rapidly rising temperature. At noon his breathing before were list getting read to administer oxygen when, at these minutes past 12, after one more effort to open his oyes, Mr. Morgan slowly, wearily, turned his head to the letting the remaining motionless forever.

Only two persons besides Doctors, England in an Olisson, and the two Highly Praised

Highly Praised

Letted in the looby of the Grand Hotel, while outside a still larger crowd as sembled.

So lace did the latter become the sembled as still larger crowd as sembled.

So lace did the latter become the sembled as still larger crowd as sembled.

So lace did the latter become the sembled as still larger crowd as sembled.

So lace did the latter become the special is that he was asked for an official opinion regarding an important matter, which is what he was elected for, cand that he gave it. That of the matter, which is what he was elected for, and that he gave it. That of the form and that he gave it. That of the form and that he gave it. That of the care where the semble desired in the constant of the politon of the Attorney-Gender of the Attorney-Gender is that he was asked for an official opinion regarding an important matter, which is what he was elected in the looby of the distance of the Attorney-Gender of the Attor

Maxwell; Newhope, V. W. Wheeler, C. Maxwell; Newhope, V. W. Wheeler, Port Republic, W. D. Eye; Rockingdam, G. W. Richardson; Elkton, C. S. A. C. Marker, C. M. W. H. Sallengeer, Page, H. Lawson; Goshen, H. M. Ronn; Bath, J. K. Gilbert; Collierstown, I. H. Vandevander (supply); Lexington, W. H. Ballengeer, Page, H. Lawson; Goshen, H. M. Ronn; Bath, J. K. Gilbert; Collierstown, I. H. Vandevander (supply); Lexington, W. F. Locke, Rockbridge Baths, C. V. Vanderinden.

Roanoke District.

W. H. Wolfe, presiding eider.

Salem, J. H. Smith; Greene Memorial, S. T. Senter, G. O. Homan (supply); Trinity, J. H. Wells; S. James, A. M. Cackiey; Melrose, W. C. Boshen, G. G. Martin; Vinton, West End, G. G. Martin; Vinton, W. H. Best, G. G. Martin; Vinton, W. Stevens, Roanoke Circuit, B. W. West End, G. G. Martin; Vinton, W. Stevens, Ran, G. H. Schooley; Belmont W. H. Best, G. G. Martin; Vinton, W. Stevens, Ran, G. H. Echols; Buchanan, H. C. Grebrey; Pincastle, G. W. C. Beer, Ruca Vista, and Orskiny, G. C. Beer, Ruca Vista, Burga, L. Hammond; Cambria, M. W. Welkle, Blacksburg, Cambria, M. J. A. Anderson, presiding cider.

MI, Vernon Place, E. V. Register, M. Plessant, J. C. Copp, N. Register, M. P. Lawson, C. C. Martin, Vinton, W. Weith, G. M. Brown, Devit, S. R. Snead; Catawba, T. A. Jonan, W. S. R. Snead; Catawba, T. A. Jonan,

Honorary Member of Baltimore Conference

C. class, Department D. C. Pulla, Con- all of the educational institutions of not cumbered about so many things, and did not write little essays merely to please the people, but preached sermons and were desperately in earnest about the salvation of souls. He said further that he was thankful for the strength to do what he is still able to lo in the church, and that he hoped o see again such a revival sweep over the church as used to be witnessed the church as used to be witnessed often, and that he could see no reason why this should not be. He said he wanted the evangelistic note to be sounded loud and continuously. He then expressed his appreciation of the honor the conference had bestowed upon him in placing his name at the head of the conference roll, and said he was always present in spirit at the sessions whether in body or not. F. J. Prettyman expressed the hope that the college of bishops would arrange their work so that Bishop Wilson could attend every session of this his own conference. He also assured Bishop Wilson of the honor and affection of the entire conference. These remarks were approved by a standing vote of the entire conference.

conference to the evangelistic level of he fathers of the church, and said the ninisters to-day are not as eager for

J. P. MORGAN DIES IN HOTEL AT ROME

the funeral would then be worked ou The immediate effect on the machin The immediate effect on the machin-ery of Wall Street of Mr. Morgan's death was comparatively slight. On the Stock Exchange the news from Rome had largely spent its force with-in fifteen minutes after, the opening of the market. Mr. Morgan's illness had prepared the financial district for the end, and every precaution had been taken to guard against a serious break in prices. At the opening the promiin prices. At the opening the promi-nent stocks declined a point or so, but they received prompt support and rallied quickly. Thereafter the market was Wall Street's relations with the head of the house of Morgan had been of such large consequence for so many made an enormous impression. From bankers, brokers, railroad and business men came tributes to the dead man, Outside the Morgan offices there was rom the Methodist Episcopal Church, was received.

Bishop Wilson Leaves.

Bishop Wilson returned to his home in Baltimore to-day, and before leaving the conference he made some remarks to the body. He expressed again his interest in the conference and his prayer for the members. He connoisseurs to be worth $50,000,000. His collection in the Metropolitan

WHISKEY AND DRUG ADDICTIONS NO CURE, NO PAY THE DR. H. L. DEVINE SANITARIUM, Inc.,

Highland Park, Richmond, Va.

We guarantee to cure any case of drug and liquor addictions in ten days to three weeks (the time required varies with the physical condition of the patient), by painless and harmless remedies, bear all expenses of treatment, board, room and attendant if necessary while in the sanitarium, and not ask one cent of compensation for treatment, board or service until the patient is cured. No other institution can, or will, make this proposition. We challenge investigation.

For further information, address THE OR. H. L. DEVINE SANITARIUM, INC., 200 North Fourth Avenue, Highland Park, Richmond, Va. Dr. George F. Bagby, Medical Director.